Understanding
the Apostles’ Creed

by Dr. Alex Tang

Stand at the crossroads and look;
ask for the ancient paths,
ask where the good way is, and walk in it,
and you will find rest for your souls

Jeremiah 6:16
The Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ, His only begotten Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried. He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of the saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Amen
1. What is a Creed?

1.1 The Meaning of Creed.

Creeds are simply statements of what an individual or organization believes about a particular subject or topic. Our English word ‘creed’ comes from the Latin credo, which means, “I believe”. They often define the most fundamental beliefs that provide the guiding principles of the individual’s or group’s existence. In Christianity, creeds are the attempts to summarize in formal statements, the basic or essential beliefs that are regarded as Truth.

This earliest Christian creed was spoken by Peter at Caesarea Philippi. In response to Jesus’ question, “But who do you think that I am?” Peter inspired by the Holy Spirit replied, “You are the Christ” (Mark 8:29).

1.2 The Origins of Creeds.

The first creeds of the Christian church are called ecumenical creeds because they were decided in church councils that represented the entire church before the church were permanently divided into the Eastern (Orthodox) and western (Roman Catholic) branches in AD 1054. Creeds are usually produced to formalised beliefs when the church was threatened by various heresies.

1.3 Creeds to identify and avoid incomplete or inadequate versions of Christianity.

1.3.1 The Apostle’s Creed.

Part of the Apostles’ Creed was first drawn up in the first or second century in response to a religious movement called Gnosticism. The Gnostics argued that their tradition was directly from the apostles. They had special knowledge (the word Gnostic comes from the Greek word gnosis knowledge) which gave them deeper spiritual revelation. One example was Marcion. Marcion was a wealthy ship owner from Pontus who was a Gnostic. He believed that the God of the Old Testament was an imperfect God. The God of the New Testament was the good God who created Jesus. To prove his thesis, Marcion remove portions of the gospels and the epistles. Tertullian (c.150-c.215), a early Church Father named Marcion as “the Pontic mouse who nibbled away the gospels.” Marcion was excommunicated in AD 144. In response to Marcion, the Old Roman Creed was developed:

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of the world, and in his Son Jesus Christ, born of Mary the Virgin, crucified under Pontius Pilate; the third day he rose again from the dead, received in the heavens, sitting now at the right hand of the Father, about to come to judge the quick and the dead, through the resurrection also of the flesh.

Irenaeus (c.130-c.200), the bishop of the southern Gallic city of Lyon also faced a similar challenge from the Gnostics. He formulated a prototype of the Apostles’ Creed, which emphasise the humanity including the physical body of Jesus, something, which the Gnostics denied:

“ in one God, the maker of heaven and earth, and of all the things that are in them, through Jesus Christ the Son of God, who, on account of his overwhelming love for his creation, endured the birth from the Virgin, uniting man to God himself, and suffered under Pontius Pilate, and rose again, and was taken up in majesty, and will come again in glory, the Saviour of those who are saved and the judge of those who are judged."
1.3.2  The Nicene Creed

The Nicene Creed was written specifically as an answer to the challenge of a group of Christians called Arians. The Arians were followers of Bishop Arius who taught that Jesus was a special created being but not God. Bishop Athanasius was the man who opposed Arius and stated that if Jesus is not divine, then he could not redeem fallen humanity. The Council of Nicea (June 325) was convened by Emperor Constantine to settle the matter of the nature of Jesus. The Council affirmed the divinity of Christ that He was of “one substance with the father”.

The Creed of Nicea – 325 A.D.

We believe in one God, the Father All-sovereign, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. We believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, and the only-begotten Son of God, Begotten of the Father before all ages, Light of Light, true God, begotten not made, of one substance with the Father, through whom all things were made; who for us men and for our salvation came down from the heavens, and was made flesh of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and became man, and was crucified for us under Pontius Pilate, and suffered and was buried, and rose again on the third day according to the Scriptures, and descended into the heavens, and sits on the right hand of the Father, and comes again with glory to judge the living and dead, of whose kingdom there is no end.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.

We acknowledge one baptism unto remission of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the age to come.

1.4  Creeds are to declare our faith.

Creeds are the way we and the church declare our faith. Luther said that a Christian should confess the Apostles’ Creed eight times daily! Some churches recite the Apostles’ Creed during their service, others during Easter and Baptismal services. One of the unique features of the Apostles’ Creed is that it is ecumenical. It affirms belief that Christians across all denominations and traditions can agree. In 1920 the Lambeth Conference recognise the Apostles’ Creed as one of the four pillars of Christian unity. In 1927 the World Conference of Faith and Order, meeting at Lausanne, declared that this creed could be used by all Christians.

1.5 Creeds are based on Scripture.

2. I Believe

To say ‘I believe’ is not just to give intellectual assent to the fundamental doctrines of the Christian faith and also encompass faith.

2.1 Key Bible Passages

2.1.1 Matthews 9:20, 27-30: Two examples of faith during the ministry of Jesus.

2.1.2 Hebrews 11:1-12:3: A classic passage on what faith is, with examples from the Old Testament.

2.1.3 James 2:14-24: A passage that highlights the emptiness of faith without action.

2.2 Faith

2.2.1 Faith means assent. Faith is believing certain things is true.

2.2.2 Faith means trust.
2.2.3 Faith means commitment.

2.2.4 Faith is obedience.

3. God the Father

3.1 The Father Almighty

3.1.1 Key Bible Passages

A. Psalm 105:8-11: Part of a psalm expressing God’s faithfulness in keeping His promises.

B. Matt. 6:9-13: The prayer addressing God as Father which Jesus taught His followers.

C. Matt. 7:9-11: Jesus using the analogy of human fatherhood to illustrate God’s willingness to answer prayer.

D. John 14:5-14: Part of what Jesus taught about His relationship with God the Father.

3.1.2 God

A. God is a Creator.

The God of history, the God who is the source of all nations and the determinator of all destinies, uphold all things by the word of His power. This is the God we believe in. He is not a God who set aside the worlds in their place and then left them there, but a God who is there, ordering, moving, reigning and working His will through the generations of history.
Why does this God take such an interest in this tiny planet of ours? The answer is in Acts 17:26-27: that men might seek after Him and find Him.

B. Covenant making God.
God makes covenants with man to show that He is sincere in His love for man and is a covenant keeping
God.

C. God’s Master Plan.

The dispensations are periods of time in human history in which God deals with man. In each dispensation, man is given a responsibility. With each failure comes judgment. But God never gave up on man and forgets His covenants and offer man another chance (dispensation).
3.1.3 Father

After establishing the existence of God, the Apostles’ Creed continues by calling God ‘Father’ because Jesus taught His disciples that is how they are to pray. The word ‘Father’ speaks of authority but also of dependability and of personal, individual care.

3.1.4 Almighty

God is not just an ‘ordinary father’. The Apostles’ Creed also stresses that God is also almighty and as such is beyond our grasp and understanding. The Christian church always uses three words to describe God.

A. Omnipotence

OMNI=All POTENS=powerful

It means God is all-powerful and can do anything He wants to do.

B. Omnipresence

OMNI=All Presence

God is not limited as we are, by space and time. God does not have size or spatial dimensions and is present in every point of space and time with His whole being. Jeremiah wrote, "Am I only a God nearby," declares the LORD," and not a God far away?:24 Can anyone hide in secret places so that I cannot see him?" declares the LORD. "Do not I fill heaven and earth?" declares the LORD. (Jer 23:23,24).
C. Omniscience

Omniscience means ‘all knowing’. Nothing we think or speak or do is secret from God. Hebrew 4:13: Nothing in all creation is hidden from God's sight. Everything is uncovered and laid bare before the eyes of him to whom we must give account.

3.2 Maker of Heaven and Earth

3.2.1 Key Bible Passages

A. Genesis 1-2: The Bible’s accounts of creation.

B. Psalms 8, 19,104: Three psalms that focus on God as Creator.

C. Isaiah 40:21-31: Some implications of the fact that God created everything.

D. Romans 1:20: Paul’s explanation of why no one can truly be an atheist.

E. Revelation 4:11: The worship due to the Creator.

---

It pleased God the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, for the manifestation of the glory of His eternal power, wisdom and goodness, in the beginning, to create, or to making of nothing, the world, and all things therein, whether visible or invisible, in the space of six days, and all very good.

The Westminster Confession of Faith
3.3 Symbols of God the Father Almighty

HAND

The primary physical representations of God the Father are a hand and an eye. In early Christian art, the hand of God was shown appearing from a cloud with fingers gesturing a blessing. In Scripture, the hand is used as a symbol for God’s power. The hand is also used as a metaphor for support, security, judgement, vengeance and punishment. The hand of God creates and protects, but if thwarted, it also destroys. The right hand of God is the hand of blessing and the left hand, the hand of cursing.

FIRE

In the Old Testament, fire represents the presence of God in His glory. In the New Testament, fire represents the presence of God in the Holy Spirit. Fire is used as a metaphor for cleansing and spiritual power.

CLOUDS

Clouds represent the presence of God. When God led the Israelites through the desert, He was present to them “in a cloud by day,… and in a pillar of fire by night.” Clouds are also associated with Christ’s ascension and His Second Coming.

WHEEL

The wheel as a symbol is derived from Ezekiel’s vision of the throne of God carried on flaming wheels and Daniel’s similar vision. The wheel was used on early Christian gravestones as a symbol of God and eternity.
Reflection Questions

1. What are some of the names you will give to God? What will be some adjectives you will use to describe God? Write it down in the space below.

Now calm yourself. Take some time to meditate on the attributes and names of God you have written down. What does God mean to you? Take some time to pray in worship, adoration and praise.
2. In the sixteenth century, a German theologian, Philip Melancthon coined the word ‘adiaphora’- matters of indifference. For Melanchthon, the Gospel consists of a central core, centering on the person of Jesus Christ. This central core is surrounded by a concentric ring, containing doctrines of secondary importance. Doctrines in the central core is not negotiable, but there could be tolerance within the church on matters outside.

What do you think are the doctrines that make up of the central core?

What do you think are the doctrines that are of secondary importance and thus negotiable or tolerable?
4. God the Son: His Identity and Birth.

4.1 Jesus Christ, his only begotten Son.

4.1.1 Key Bible Passages

A. Mark 1:1-8: Mark’s account of how John the Baptist prepared the way for the arrival of Jesus.
B. Mark 2:1-12: One of the early incidents that marked Jesus out as special.
C. John 1:14: John’s understanding of the significance of Jesus’ life on earth.
D. John 5:16-27: How Jesus saw His identity as the Son of God.
E. John 17:1-26: Jesus’ prayer to His Father on the night before He died.
F. Romans 1:3-4: Paul’s summary of the dual human and divine identity of Jesus.

4.2 Our Lord.

The word ‘Lord’ is used almost six hundred times of Jesus in the New Testament. In the Greek, the word is kurios and it expresses ownership.

4.2.1 Key Bible Passages.

A. Matt. 7:21-22: A warning about what it really means for Jesus to be ‘Lord’.
B. Acts 2:14-39: Peter’s explanation of how a crucified criminal could be Messiah and Lord.
C. Romans 10:9, 1 Corinthians 12:3: The significance of saying, “Jesus is Lord”.
4.3  He was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary.

4.3.1  Key Bible Passages. The Incarnation.

A. Matt. 1:18-25: The circumstances leading up to the birth of Jesus from Joseph’s viewpoint.

B. Luke 1:26-38: The circumstances leading up to the birth of Jesus from Mary’s viewpoint.

C. Heb. 4:14-16: One of the implications of the humanity of Jesus.

4.3.2  Virgin birth

A. It makes important connection with Old Testament prophecies (Isaiah 7:14; Matthew 1:22-23).

B. It stresses that Jesus is divine by name, not by adoption at a later date.

C. It provided an important defense against early Jewish opponents of Christianity who suggested that Jesus was the illegitimate child of Mary. (maybe alluded to in John 8:41).

4.3.3  Fully Human, Fully God

A. Humanity

Having affirmed in opposition to the Gnostics that God has created the world and it is good, the Apostles’ Creed then proceed to affirm that God had taken on human flesh. Jesus is “God with skin on”.

Infinite and an infant. Eternal, and yet born of a woman. Almighty, and yet hanging on a woman’s breast. Supporting a universe, and yet needing to be carried in a mother’s arm. King of angels, and yet the reputed son of Joseph. Heir of all things, and yet the carpenter’s son.

S.H.Spurgeon
Jesus was fully human, sharing all our frailties and limitations:

- He became tired (John 4:6)
- He experienced physical thirst (John 19:28)
- He can be tempted (Matthew 4:1-10)
- He knew physical hunger (Matthew 4:2)
- He experienced physical weakness (Matthew 8:23-25)
- He died (Matthew 27:50)

Jesus was completely human.

B. Divine

The Greek word Christ means Messiah which is given to Jesus, meaning that Jesus is the anointed one. Jesus is the one in whom all human history and the promises of God find fulfillment. Jesus has a special relationship with God. The Jews were furious with Jesus for calling God his father, for they recognised that he was making himself equal with God (John 5:18).

The Gospel of John contains some of the most explicit teaching about the unity of the Son and the Father:

- The Son knows the Father as the Father knows the Son (John 10:15)
- The Father shows the Son what he is doing (5:20)
- The Father taught the Son (8:28)
- What the Son says is what he has already heard the Father say (8:38, 12:50)
- No one comes to the Father in any other way than by the Son (14:6)
- The Father has given to the Son to judge others (5:22)
- What the Father has is the Son (16:15)
- The Son is in the Father and the Father is in the Son (10:38, 14:10)
- To see the Son is to see the Father (14:9)
- I and the Father are one (10:30)

4.3.4 Symbols of Jesus Christ

LIGHT, CANDLE
In the Old Testament, light comes to signify God’s presence and holiness. In the New Testament, the children of God are called ‘children of light’. In early Christian paintings, light or source of light denotes divine presence. Light is primarily used as a symbol for Christ. John’s gospel called Jesus as the Light of the world, often symbolised by a candle. In some churches, it is common to put two candles on both side of the altar or communion table to signify the two natures of Christ- divine and human. These two sources of light combine at the central illuminated space where the Eucharistic cup and bread are placed.

GRIFFIN
The griffin is a creature of fantasy, important for its domination of both the earth and the sky. This mythological creature has a lion’s body and an eagle’s head and wings. In medieval times, the griffin represented Christ’s power. Dante used the griffin as the symbol of Christ because of its dual qualities, qualities that allude to Christ’s dual nature (divine and human) and to His mastery of earth and sky.

Lamb
Christ is the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. The lamb is the principal element in several representational variations with other elements-it is shown with a cruciform halo, with blood flowing into a chalice, and with the banner of the Resurrection.
5. God the Son: His Death and Resurrection.

5.1 suffered under Pontius Pilate.

5.1.1 Key Bible Passage
B. Matt. 27:11-56: Part of Matthew’s account of the trial and execution of Jesus.
C. John 19:16: Part of John’s account of the trial and execution of Jesus.

5.1.2 Pontius Pilate
A. The reference to Pontius Pilate anchors the Creed firmly in history.
B. It brings out the public nature of Jesus’ trial and execution.
C. Pilate represents the rejection of Jesus by the world

5.2 was crucified, died and buried.

5.2.1 Key Bible Passages
B. John 19:16-42: John’s account of the death and burial of Jesus

“And can it be, that I should gain
An interest in the Saviour’s blood?
Died He for me, who caused His pain-
For me, who Him to death pursued?
Amazing love! How can it be
That Thou. My God, shouldst die for me’’

Charles Wesley
5.2.2 Symbols of the Cross

There are about four hundred variations on the basic shape of the cross.

a. The most common are the Latin cross, with the intersecting horizontal post about three-quarters of the way up the vertical.
b. The Greek cross, in which the horizontal post bisects the vertical.
c. The Tau or Advent cross, which is shaped like the letter ‘T’.
d. The Patriarchal cross which has two graduated transverse arms.
e. The Eastern Orthodox cross which has two horizontal arms and a third slanted arm.
f. The Celtic cross which has a circle enclosing the cross beams.

The cross is seen as a sign of complete resolution between the vertical life force and the horizontal death or ‘rest’ force. It also represents life’s polarities: the spiritual or otherworldly (vertical) and the physical or worldly (horizontal).
5.3 He descended into hell.

5.3.1 Key Bible Passages

A. 1 Peter 3:19: He preached to the spirits in prison.

5.3.2 Purgatory or second chance

5.4 the third day, he rose again from the dead.

5.4.1 Key Bible Passages

A. Matt. 28:1-20: Matthew’s account of the appearances of Jesus after His resurrection.

B. John 20:1-23: Part of John’s account of the appearances of Jesus after His resurrection.

C. 1 Corinthians 15:1-28: What Paul says about the central importance of the resurrection of Jesus.

5.4.2 Symbols of the Resurrection

BANNER
Symbols like the banner symbolises the victory of Christ’s resurrection. The banner or flay-usually white with a red cross-is the symbol of victory over death carried by the resurrected Christ. This symbol is derived from the vision of Constantine the Great and his adoption of a cruciform on the Roman standard. In Christian art, this banner is carried by military saints and depicts Christ the Sacrificial Lamb

BUTTERFLY
In many Christian art, the butterfly represents resurrection. Its life cycle from caterpillar to crystalis to butterfly symbolises the life, death and resurrection of Christ. The Greek uses the same word for soul and butterfly: psyche. In western France the ‘Cleopatra’ butterfly is used as the symbol of the resurrected Christ. This butterfly emerges from its cocoon only at Easter, as if from the tomb.
EGG

The egg is the Christian symbol of the Resurrection because the small chick breaks from the egg at its birth, just as Christ broke forth from the tomb. The egg, like the seed, contains the promise of new life and hope. The egg also represents chastity and purity, since the chick is protected in its shell. The egg has come to symbolise Easter.

6. God the Son: His Present Activity and Future Role.

6.1 He ascended into heaven and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty.

A. Matt. 25:31-46: Part of the teaching of Jesus about His coming again as judge.

C. 1 Thessalonians 4:13-5:11: Paul’s teaching about the return of Christ and its implications

6.2.2 Symbols of Christ Triumphant

PANTOCRATER

Pantocrater is a Greek word meaning “all-sovereign, ruler of all’. As early as the sixth century, this word has come to refer to Christ as Judge. In most depiction of the Sovereign Christ, he is heavily bearded with long hair. His right hand is raised in blessing or points to the Gospel book in his left hand. Behind his head is a cruciform halo.

FOOTSTOOL

The footstool is a figurative place of submission where the conquered belong. This illustration shows Christ sitting on a throne and placing his feet on the footstool of the earth, which is divided into three sections: earth, sky and sea.

7.1.3 The Ministry of the Holy Spirit in the Old and New Testament
7.1.4 The Symbols of the Holy Spirit

DOVE

The dove is the primary symbol of the Holy Spirit because the Holy Spirit is present as a dove at the baptism of Christ. The dove also becomes the symbol of man making peace with God when it is offered as a sacrifice. Medieval art uses the dove to refer to the seven gifts of the Spirit (wisdom, understanding, counsel, power, knowledge, godliness and the fear of the Lord – Isa.11:2). In the New Testament, twelve doves symbolise the fruit of the Spirit (love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control-Gal.5:22).

FIRE, TONGUES OF FIRE

Fire is a symbol of both God and the Holy Spirit. In the Old Testament fire represents the presence of God in His Glory. In the New Testament, fire is the symbol of the Holy Spirit. Tongues of fire representing the Holy Spirit fell on the disciples on Pentecost.

COLUMBINE

The seven blooms of the columbine symbolise the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit. Columbine means ‘like a dove’ because its flowers were thought to resemble doves in flight. Because of this association, it became the symbol of the Holy Spirit who descended in the form of a dove.
8. The Church.

8.1 The holy catholic church.

8.1.1 Key Bible Passages.

A. 1 Corinthians 12:4-31: Paul’s teaching on the church as the body of Christ.

B. Ephesians 5:25-33: Paul uses marriage to illustrate the relationship between Christ and the church.

C. Colossians 1:18: A reminder of who is in charge.

8.1.2 Features of the church.

A. The church is one.

B. The church is holy.

C. The church is catholic.

Many people have come to associate the world ‘catholic’ with the Roman Catholic Church. This is not true. The Greek word katholikos means “according to the whole’ or ‘universal’. In saying that the church is catholic, we are affirming that its message is valid and relevant to every age and situation. It is relevant to the second century as it is now in the twenty first century. Catholic is an affirmation of the universal validity and relevance of the gospel.

D. The church is apostolic.

The church continues in the faith and teaching of the first apostles (Acts 2:42) and accepts the Great Commission (Matt. 28:16-20) entrusted to them. The faith and tasks of the apostles have become ours.
8.1.3 The Sacred Sanctuary in History and Prophecy
8.2  The communion of the saints.

8.2.1  Key Bible Passages.

B.  Romans 12:3-11: Paul’s teaching on how Christians are to relate to one another.

C.  Ephesians 4:11-16: The purpose of leadership within the church.

D.  Hebrews 11:1-12:3: The roll call of those who have gone ahead of us.

8.2.2  Symbol of the Church

In the early church, believers called themselves “son of the celestial Icthus” (Greek for fish). The five letters spelling out fish in Greek came to represent the slogan “Jesus Christ, Son of God, Saviour.”

In the second century, Tertullian wrote, “We small fish, like our Fish, Jesus Christ, swim in the [baptismal] water, and we can be saved only by remaining in it.” In the third century, Cyprian wrote.” It is in the water that we are reborn, in the likeness of Christ our master, the Fish”.

The fish become a common sign used by persecuted Christians to identify themselves as believers – a secret sign of faith.

9.1 The forgiveness of sins.

9.1.1 Key Bible Passages.
A. Isaiah 59:1-15: Why forgiveness is necessary.
B. Matt. 18:23-35: When forgiveness is impossible.
C. 2 Corinthians 5:18-21: Passing on the good news.
D. 1 Peter 1:14-17: The high standards to which we are called.

9.2 The resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

9.2.1 Key Bible Passages.
B. 1 Corinthians 15: The implications of the resurrection of Jesus
9.2.2 Future Judgement and Resurrections
9.2.3 Rewards at the Judgement Seat of Christ (1Cor. 3:14; 2 Cor. 5:10)

Reflection Questions

1. What gifts has God given you? In what ways can you use them?

2. What are the four characteristic marks of the church? Why are they so important? What suggestions can you offer for our church to become a church with these characteristics?
3. Why is real forgiveness so difficult to offer and to accept? How does this apply to you in your relationship with God? How does this apply to you to other members of your church?
10. Living Theologically

The basis of living theologically is a ‘theology of everyday things’. It is encompassed by three mysteries - Trinity, incarnation and grace.

10.1 Trinity

A. Ancient Symbol of the Trinity
B. Biblical Perspective of the Trinity

| Introduction                                                                 | The word “Trinity” is never used, nor is the doctrine of Trinitarianism ever explicitly taught in the Scriptures, but Trinitarianism is the best explication of the biblical evidence. The theological exposition of the doctrine arose from clear, but not comprehensive, scriptural teaching. It is a crucial doctrine for Christianity because it focuses on who God is, and particularly on the deity of Jesus Christ. Because Trinitarianism is not taught explicitly in the Scriptures, the study of the doctrine is an exercise in putting together biblical themes and data through a systematic theological study and through looking at the historical development of the present orthodox view of what the biblical presentation of the Trinity is. |
| Essential Elements of the Trinity | 1. God is One.
2. Each of the persons within the Godhead is Deity.
3. The oneness of God and the threefold of God are not contradictory.
4. The Trinity (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit) is eternal.
5. Each of the persons of God is of the same essence and is not inferior or superior to the others in essence.
6. The Trinity is a mystery which we will never be able to understand fully. |
| God is One                                                                 | Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the Lord is one (Deut 6:4; cf. 20:2-3; 3:13-15). | Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen (1 Tim 1:17; cf. 1 Cor. 8:4-6; 1 Tim. 2:5-6; James 2:19). |
| Three Distinct Persons as Deity | The Father: He said to me, “You are my Son; today I have become your Father” (Ps. 2:7). | ... who have been chosen according to the foreknowledge of God the Father ... (1 Peter 1:2; cf. John 1:17; 1 Cor. 8:6; Phil. 2:11). |
|                                                                             | The Son: He said to me, “You are my Son; today I have become your Father” (Ps. 2:7; cf. Heb. 1:1-13; Ps. 68:18; Isa. 6:1-3; 9:6). | As soon as Jesus was baptized, he went up out of the water. At that moment heaven was opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and lighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, “This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased” (Matt. 3:16-17). |
|                                                                             | The Holy Spirit: In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth ... and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters (Gen. 1:1-2; cf. Exod. 31:3; Judg. 15:14; Isa. 11:2). | Then Peter said, “Ananias, how is it that Satan has so filled your heart that you have lied to the Holy Spirit ...? You have not lied to men but to God” (Acts 5:3-4; cf. 2 Cor. 3:17). |
Plurality of Persons in the Godhead

The use of plural pronouns points to, or at least suggests, the plurality of persons within the Godhead in the Old Testament. "Then God said, 'Let us make man in our image, in our likeness...'."

The use of the singular word "name" when referring to God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit indicates a unity within the threeness of God. "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Matt. 28:19).

Rev. 3:7,8
 "To the angel of the church in Philadelphia write:
 These are the words of him who is holy and true, who holds the key of David. What he opens no one can shut, and what he shuts no one can open. I know your deeds. See, I have placed before you an open door that no one can shut. I know that you have little strength, yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name.

Heb. 9:14
How much more, then, will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from acts that lead to death, so that we may serve the living God!

Living theologically depends on Trinitarian thinking.

Examples of Trinitarian thinking are
(a) in the church, we Christians must be always reminded that we are children of the Father, body of Christ and temple of the Holy Spirit. All our worship, communion, baptism and church life is done in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit;
(b) Trinitarian thinking puts the family as the foundational unit of existence;
(c) in the world, the recognition of equality and value of all human beings is based on the co-equality of the persons in the Trinity and everybody works for the whole;
(d) time: to be in Christ as the Son means to be in the Father and in the Holy Spirit. To be truly in the present also means to be in the past and future. In Trinitarian thinking, the past, present and future are united and become whole time, just as the Father, the Son and the Spirit are one.
Reflection Questions

C. How does the understanding of the Trinity affect your life?

D. How does the understanding of the Trinity affect your relationship with other people?
10.2 Incarnation

Living theologically means living a life of incarnation as our Lord Jesus has done. God became fully human. Incarnational lifestyle means living as Jesus did and to be the light and salt of the world.

Reflection Questions

A. How does the incarnation of God affect your everyday life?

B. How will you apply the incarnation in your everyday living?
10.3 Grace

Living theologically also recognise that our lives is purely by grace. Everything we have is from God and by the grace of God. Therefore living theologically is a lifestyle of thanksgiving.

Reflection Questions

A. How has the Grace of God affected your life?

B. What are the means of Grace?
11. An Integrated Life: A Living Theologically Lifestyle

A windmill and a simple farm house is my symbol of an integrated life that is living theologically. Living theologically is living our lives firmly based on our beliefs.

Tripod

The tripod forms the base for the windmill. It has three pillars which represent orthodoxy (right beliefs), orthopathy (right feelings) and orthopraxy (right action). For an integrated life, these pillars need to be of equal length i.e. balanced so as to provide a firm and stable base for the wind wheel.

The Platform

The platform is the foundation on which the tripod and windmill stands. For it to be a strong platform, it needs to be formed from the tenets of our belief-the Apostles’ Creed and informed by the Word of God.

Living Theologically is a ‘Trinitarian, incarnational and full of grace’ lifestyle
Wind-wheel

The blades of the wind wheel represent the areas in our lives that need to be in balance.

The 6 blades of the wind-wheel are:

1. stability versus change
2. personal versus community
3. obedience versus initiative
4. tradition versus innovation
5. contemplation versus action
6. desert versus marketplace

For the wind wheel to be stable, we need to be in the centre, balancing all these aspects of our lives.

Wind

This represent pneuma the Holy Spirit. The wind blows the wind wheel which then moves and produces energy. The Holy Spirit energizes our lives.

Wood

Wood that the windmill is made up represent the Cross of Christ. Christology is the basis of an integrated life.

Energy

Energy represent the fruits that will be produced by an integrated life.

Farmhouse

This energy (fruit) is given to build the Kingdom of God.
